65+ WB American Championship - SD Mudcats 10 LeHigh Valley 6

The San Diego Mudcats outlasted the stubborn Lehigh Valley Moondogs 10-6 in the 65+ American Championship Contest today at Tempe Diablo. After three complete innings the Moondogs were clinging onto a 2 to 1 lead while executing small ball in proper fashion. In the fourth inning, The Mudcats erupted with four runs thanks to some key hits by Jack Valentine and Ken McAtee taking a 5-2 lead. The Cats added two more in the top half of the sixth taking advantage of some Moondog errors. The Dogs clawed their way back in the game scoring four runs of their own in the bottom half of the inning with three hits and a couple of walks closing the score to 7-6 Mudcats. The Mudcats then tallied a run in the seventh and two in the eighth, to secure the victory and championship.

65+ WB Central Championship - St Paul Saints 21 Ports 5

The St. Paul Saints banged out 25 hits to prove their point over the Ports in 65+ Central Division Championship Game action. The Saints jumped out early with a five-run lead and never looked back as they led 14-0 after four innings of play. The Saints added to their lead in the sixth, scoring five more and extending their lead to 19-0. The Ports showed their grit in the seventh as they pushed three runs across and another two in the ninth, but the Saints answered with runs of their own as they lit up the board with 21 runs. The Saints had 16 hits by the four inning proving too much for the Ports to make up.
