MSBL / MABL National Office Taking Steps To Simplify The Rules

Temperatures Soar With A Ninth Day of High 90's - 100 For Today!

By Tom Prendergast

The theme of most of these newsletter front page articles so far this year has been the way we were and how we got here. Yesterday the 55+ Central and Cactus managers received the news that the minimum requirements of batting at least 14 players in a game was being waived, at least for the playoffs. When we started adding additional divisions (National & American had become incredibly competitive in just a few short years) it quickly became clear that some kind of assurance to the players in this division was necessary and so Steve and his staff came up with a minimum of one plate appearance for a minimum of 15 batters, which was later dropped to 14. For the most part this requirement has been successful and helpful to manager and players alike. However in year 29, it's time to tweak this rule just a little and drop the requirement for the playoffs. The main reason for this change is to limit protest's and settle games on the field. And speaking of protests, the wrong courtesy runner, shared position and A/B batter are all non-protest able. In the event this happens during a game, just call time and fix it. Notify the home plate ump that you think the wrong player is on the field. Let's keep the game simple and enjoyable for all participants.

Tom Evans Krause (Puget Sound Twins Manager)
2016 MSBL / MABL Lifetime Achievement Award Recipient

My home town is Minneapolis and Nicole and I now live in Lynnwood, Washington. We have two children: Andrew, who attended the University of Washington and is now a software engineer, and our daughter Allison is currently a Biology major also at the University of Washington. I am a 21 year career professional radio DJ, Program Director and Operations Manager and Consultant. I have also been working as the Director of Broadcast Operations, Department Head and Instructor at Seattle area's Green River College for the past 22 years.

Regarding my baseball resume, I have been playing in the Puget Sound Senior Baseball League since 1995 and have been the league's General Manager for the past 15 seasons. As a player I have been a part of ten PSSBL Division Championships while winning my first PSSBL championship in 1997, six days after having staples removed from a second consecutive cancer surgery. I played first base and went 1-3 with an RBI in the win.

I am proud to have organized and played in six PSSBL games for charity at Safeco Field, home of the Mariners. I have served as a league board member since 2000 and am happy to hold the honor of being the longest serving board member in league history. I enjoyed serving on the staff of the Seattle Mariners Fantasy Camp from 2010 to 2013 alongside Dave Henderson and have participated in 12 consecutive MSBL World Series from 2005 to present. We won in 2007 as the Puget Sound Gators and won this year, 2016, as the Puget Sound Twins. I am thrilled to have been selected by Steve Sigler to become a part of the 2012 class of the MSBL National Hall of Fame

My 2012 induction into the MSBL National Hall of Fame was so very special, but this Lifetime Achievement Award is incredible and almost impossible to fathom – especially when I see some of the names on the list like Tom Prendergast, Steve Rosenburg and Dan Piro. I am extremely humbled and thankful to be recognized with such an illustrious group.
