MSBL Lifetime Achievement Award Ralph Proulx, MUNY-Buffalo MSBL

By Steve LaMontia-Carlentini,

MSBL Director of Communications

Ralph Proulx is the 70-year-old poster child for an MSBL ambassador. He is a coach, a manager, an accomplished player, an MSBL Hall of Fame and Honor Roll member, and has been the League President of the MUNY-Buffalo MSBL since 1992, a post inherited from his brother Jim. "Nobody wanted to do it, so I volunteered," chuckled Ralph. "That was nearly 35 years ago!" Such longevity and commitment are hard to find. Ralph's success hasn't escaped the watchful eye of MSBL Founder and President Steve Sigler, who has named Ralph as the 2026 recipient of the distinguished MSBL Lifetime Achievement Award. Ralph began playing in the MUNY-Buffalo league back in 1989 and has played baseball since the age of eight. He grew up playing in the local MUNY league (established in 1912) and had many coaches who instilled in him the game and how it should be played. He followed his passion beginning at an early age. "I started to play and manage in my 20s. I love the managing aspect of the game; it certainly gives you a different perspective. Fortunately, I have had great players to (continued on page 1)

manage over the years." We sent Ralph a questionnaire asking him about his journey and what this award means to him. I will switch gears here and allow Ralph to elaborate, in his own words. It is a treat to dig deeper into Ralph's success story. Congratulations, Ralph! "It is truly an honor to accept this MSBL Lifetime Achievement Award. When I first became involved with the MSBL, I never imagined that one day I would be accepting an award like this. Baseball has given me lifelong friendships, unforgettable memories, and opportunities I could never have imagined. For over three decades, I've had the privilege of serving as Commissioner and President of the MUNY Buffalo MSBL. Since 1992, our league has continued to grow. But our success has never been about one person. It belongs to every manager who has volunteered countless hours, every player who has competed with passion. Without their dedication, our league would never have become what it is today. The MSBL has allowed me to travel across the country and compete with some of the finest baseball players imaginable. Managing Team New Era from 2000 to 2015 and winning five national championships, merging with the legendary East Coast Cardinals founded by David Hash (Fall Classic HOF member), and now managing the Cardinals alongside my longtime friend Glenn Hauptman has been an incredible journey. Together, the Cardinals have captured more than 30 national tournament championships and 12 championship rings. I've also had the privilege of playing for Bill Rector and the San Antonio Black Ops in the MSBL World Series in the 65+ division, proving that our love for this game never gets old. Coaching has always been a passion of mine. Today I'm proud to serve as Head Coach at Aquilla J. Morgan High School in Wimauma, Florida. I would also like to sincerely thank Steve Sigler, Brian Sigler, and Gary D'Ambrisi. Your friendship, encouragement, and unwavering support of both our Buffalo league and my national teams have meant more than you know. Thank you for believing in me and for everything you've done for the MSBL family. And finally, to my wife, Kara - my best friend, my biggest supporter, and my greatest teammate. You've sacrificed countless weekends, vacations, and evenings so I could continue doing what I love. Through every season, every road trip, every victory, and every challenge, you've always been there beside me. None of this would have been possible without your love and support.
